

7TH IDO WORLD GALA 2021 – THE SEMI FINALISTS!
Press Release 13/2022

The International Dance Organisation is delighted to confirm the top 30 entries that have qualified for the Semi Final for the IDO Gala World Event for 2021. The semi-finalists include performers from 3 continents and representing the three IDO Dance Departments. The semi-finalists are:

Aleksandra Radic from Serbia
Andrea Truter from South Africa
Chantelle Ferreira from South Africa
Rugcutterz from Canada
Daveena and Darshika Pillay from South Africa
Michael and Kevin Scheitzbach from Canada
Elen Snoblova from Czech Republic
Dylan Castillo and Emily DePrisco from Canada
Dance Continent from Slovak Republic
One More Light from South Africa
Herman Holmo Keim from Norway
The Wikked from United States of America
Selina Jappee from Norway
Raul Martins and Nyathwa Lerato Junior Kgowa from South Africa
Paulina Rosenkvist and Lisa Carlund from Sweden
Madeline Scarse and Elanie Le Roux from South Africa
Taylor and Madison Versfeld from South Africa
Denise Going from Canada
Coralie Robynne Versfeld from South Africa
2 Dance Company from Norway
King Kunta from South Africa
Coralie Robynne Versfeld from South Africa
Supremacy from South Africa
Bendeguz Kenyeres from Hungary
Busra and Emek Yeter from Turkey
Leon Shvaitser from South Africa
Wilma Lindstrom and Lisa Persson from Sweden
Neverland from South Africa
Attacktion from Germany
TwoFourSeven from Canada

The semi-final will take place this forthcoming Sunday 13th February on IDO Web TV – www.ido-dance.tv and will be judged by five VIP judges, including Debbie Rakusin, Arnika Matkojuvancic, Patio Ikaauui, Aleena Tan, Barbara Warren Smith and Julie Green. The performances that qualify into the top 12 will compete for the Bill Fowler Cup at the grand final scheduled for the 26th February 2022.

#ILoveIDO #IDOWorldDance #IDOGalaWorldEvent